Feminine Light in the Middle East Conf. Set For Intl. Day for Tolerance 11/16/11 Hyatt Century Plaza
The Institute of Women's Enlightenment presents: The Feminine Light in the Middle East Conference
Set For Intl. Day for Tolerance 11/16/11 at Hyatt Century Plaza Hotel - Century City, California 90067

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRLog (Press Release) - Oct 12, 2011 - The Institute of Women's Enlightenment presents their 1st Annual Conference titled The Feminine Light in the Middle East to be held at the Hyatt Century Plaza Hotel - Century City, California 90067 on November 16, 2011, which is also UNESCO's International Day for Tolerance. To register and see more information go to:<http://www.loveoflight.eventbrite.com/> or call: 310-651-0774 or email: sly@femininelight.com.

The Feminine Light in the Middle East event which is scheduled for 8 am to 5 pm is described by organizers as: "a unique experience to begin our story as women and to reveal the beauty of our worth and to appreciate the men who honor the value of our energy, love, joy and talents." Stephany Lane Yarbrough, Ph.D, Founder of The Institute of Women's Enlightenment, creator of The Feminine Light in the Middle East Conference and the author of "The Feminine Light - The Power of Being" explains that the November 16 event is guided by a vision of "Commitment to action bringing the feminine principle to life at home and in the Middle East."

Yarbrough adds, "that the Feminine Light in the Middle East Day is about giving birth to a collective voice of women and men who cherish their abilities to lead, to make a difference in the world by recognizing publicly the value and purpose of women in a way that is safe and happy for men's own value and contentment."

UNESCO'S International Day For Tolerance

It's appropriate that The Feminine Light in the Middle East Conference is on the same day as the UNESCO International Day for Tolerance, which has been celebrated since 1996. According to the UNESCO website, The International Day for Tolerance is a time for people to learn about respecting and recognizing the rights and beliefs of others. Respecting human rights and gender differences is key to The Feminine Light in the Middle East Conference in Century City, 8 am to 5 pm on November 16th and just may be the largest event on Women and the Middle East set on the International Day for Tolerance in 2011.

Yarbrough says, "We are thrilled to be perhaps one of the largest events in the world to raise awareness of women's worth particularly in the Middle East on this International Day for Tolerance 2011. The Feminine Light in the Middle East is offering a vision of women, worth and purpose in support of men who honor to create a new legacy for our children.

Yarbrough continues, "I hope to begin uniting like-minded women and men in order to form a collective voice through the formation of A Gender Declaration of Interdependence, a document that supports the value of all women in being women. A document for women in the Middle East and for women around the world that clarifies what I call a "meta-consciousness" of womanhood or an overall understanding of women's identity as distinctly different from men."
